

ENTERPRISE RISK MANGEMENT FRAMEWORK

Morison UAE Consulting assists clients in creating a practical enterprise risk management (ERM) framework that can integrate with existing management processes.

The ERM framework can bring following benefits to the organization:

- Provide a proactive approach to enterprise wide risk management
- Rationalize the cost of risk management
- Create long term value for organization Contribute to long-term value creation and protection
- Ensure regulatory and contractual compliance
- Reduce uncertainties for the business

Our consultants with domain expertise in finance, operations, technology and compliance can helps clients develop, implement and maintain effective risk management capability. Our in-depth knowledge of Middle East Markets and support of our global Morison International network can bring benefits to clients ERM activity.